

2020-2021 Important Questions and Answers during home learning at SRB!

QUESTION	ANSWER
Will there be live-online learning classes?	Yes! Students will be engaged in direct teaching for the first half hour of each class as they follow their regular in school schedule.
Do students need to be in every classroom during all office hours?	No, staff will be available for the second 30 minutes of each class for help and support. All staff are available by email at any time.
How do I know when my child should be in class?	Students will follow their regular schedule as if they were in school.
How do I get access to Google Classroom?	Students gain access by emailing their teachers and should ensure they are connected to each Google Classroom.
What if my child does not have a computer or internet access at home?	All students are able to take a Chromebook home to engage in remote learning. If internet is an issue, please contact the school.
Does my child need to be in the google classroom every class?	Yes! Students are expected to be in class. Attendance will be taken each hour.
Is there a Google Classroom Code of Conduct?	Yes. Students should conduct themselves with the same expectations online as would be expected under the Regional Code of Conduct used at school. This includes appropriate clothing.
Will new assignments be posted everyday?	Possibly. Teachers will be offering both synchronous and asynchronous instruction. Students will be engaged in direct and indirect (independent) learning.
Are the Principal and Vice-Principal available?	Absolutely, please email anytime.
What if I am not receiving communication from SRB?	Please contact school administration via email listed in the Staff Directory.
Are they being evaluated and graded?	Yes! The Province has directed that students will be assessed and evaluated in each subject area. Assignments, in-class participation and assessments will count toward their final grade.
Do they have time for lunch?	Yes! Students will take their lunch during the time they would regularly be scheduled during the school day.